Miss Grace E Hall,
Oak Park Ill. U.S.A.

Dear Grace,

A person must talk about weather over here or he is thought to be strange, but I think I can restrain writing about it.—

How kind you were to advance upon faith the Epistle of joy which I received on Saturday just as I was going to the station to take the train for Wemyss Bay, where we took the steamer down the firth of the Clyde to the Greater

Coubrae Island to land at Millport.—

This "We" is composed of Doctor Robt. Milles, House Surgeon in the great Royal Infirmary here,— his brother Rev. Harry Milles, and his father Mr. John " a great Iron merchant here,— and small "yankee" me.

You can scarcely believe what an unlimited amount of free masonry exists between medical gentlemen over here.— Dr. Miller is as regular big brother to me as are several great men.

For me to think I enjoyed

Saturday evening with a long walk over the hills and saw the sun set over the West Highlands at 9.05 P.M. and Sunday going amid a pleasant home of Millers; where a wee bonny Scotch lassie cheered all, and then attending the Free Presbyterian Church when Rev. Harry Miller held the fort decorated with a most extravagant black silk gown, is absolutely certain — Then Monday I staid to cheer the minister in his day off, by rowing over to the Lewis Contrast and viewing Bobby Burns ruined castle and climbing to its top —

The sister Miss Mary Miller was with us over here and we saw the skylark fly away up in the air and soar higher as it sang, as only it can do. —

Home, to Glasgow Monday evening, and Medicine & Surgery & Correspondence have filled my time since. It is so wonderfully cool here, altho they think it hot, about 70°. I do trust your dear Mother will gradually recover and please give her my love. You are not alone in trouble, I have taken the liberty of enclosing a note which I want you to deliver as it is addressed 5.

Rejoice that your girls are doing so nicely and that the Clyde pupils are still doing so nicely.

There has so much good offered to me here it is hard not to work too hard—

Tell Jack to come in over, it will do him good. Address me as the C.P.H. c/o Bank of Scotland, Lothbury, London England always after. — Hug alma. Know where I am. —

Your true friends

Clarence E. Hemingway.

I am all turned up side down having done too much writing today. So forgive & forget — Will do better next time, do not wait for answers — Clarence.
